Raleigh, Saturday, February 15, 1868.

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION OF THE CONSERVATIVE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

WM. A. HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Saturday, February 15, 1868.

WE are told that the necessity of our condition is an immediate resumption, by the State, of her constitutional relations with the General Government; that a speedy return to the Union is the only salvation from evils of greater magnitude than those we bear. With certain restrictions, the statements are true. We surely need peace, fraternity and an opportunity to recuperate from the injury inflicted by the war and by hostile legislation since its close. Our present position is, certainly, not favorable to effort to restore the State to the degree of prosperity which she enjoyed in other and happier days.

Many good men and citizens appreciating these facts, are earnestly urging reconstruction upon the terms proposed by Congress; saying that it is better to endure the ills which would follow the adoption of that course than to hazard greater wrongs by remaining as we are. We beg the white men of the State not to become debauched by their surroundings—not to contemplate, for a single moment, the surrender of principle for a temporary respite from danger and difficulty. We beg them also to consider the consequences of the course they advocate.

The Convention now in session in this city may be taken, with justice, as an exponent of the sentiments and purposes of Radicalism in North Carolina. From its action we can determine the political character of the issues to be presented for our decision in the election upon the constitution. True, the constitution has not yet been adopted, but the large majorities by which the various alterations in our organic law have been carried are an earnest of its success. That constitution deliberately proposes, by its provisions, that the white men of North Carolina shall declare by their votes the political, and by consequence the social, equality of the negroes of the State. It grants them suffrage; makes all voters eligible to office and thereby enables them to hold them; and makes all officers of the State Government, in all its departments—Executive, Judicial and Legislative—elective by the people. It requires that white men and negroes shall be associated in the same companies and regiments in the militia—an amendment providing for their separate organization having been defeated by a strict party vote. By this means, in many of the counties of the State in which there are heavy negro majorities, the white men will be compelled by law to obey the orders of negro officers.

Such are some of the features of the legislation so far had by the Convention. If there be any deeper depth of infamy, it will sink there.

Are the white men of North Carolina prepared by their votes to endorse these things? We hope not. We believe not. It would be ineffably disgraceful and cowardly thus to act.

The plain question for our decision is, whether we prefer reconstruction on these terms and in this manner, or whether we shall bear our burdens with all possible patience, and await the coming of an era of better things. Such reconstruction would be criminal, since, in order to effect it, we must abandon principles which we have most solemnly avowed. Would it benefit us, so far as our material interests are concerned? We think not. The negro vote in North Carolina exceeds 70,000, we believe. Admitted to suffrage, they could always control the government of the State. Who does not foresee the terrible consequences that would follow? With negro jurors, negro magistrates, negro judges, legislators, congressmen and governors, who can believe that our industrial interests would prosper? Capital would not come amongst us. Emigrants would seek other States for location. Agriculture, manufactories and commerce would languish, and the sufferings and losses we have borne sink into insignificance when compared with those that would come to us, if this land should be given over to negro domination.

* * *

SINCE the dismissal of the case of the State of Georgia vs. Stanton, Grant et. al., many have supposed that it will be impossible so to frame a case as to bring the question of the constitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts before the court and obtain a decision thereon. We believe the opinion to be an erroneous one.

The ground of the dismissal of this case was a want of jurisdiction. The question presented was purely political in its character, it being a petition for an injunction against the parties defendant forbidding their execution of the acts of Congress regulating reconstruction.—There was neither private right nor private property involved, and the court very properly dismissed it.

Acts of Congress as such are beyond the jurisdiction of the court and can only come before it incidentally. When by an act of Congress the private rights or personal liberty of a citizen are infringed, the court is empowered to consider the law, and finding such infringement must then declare the act unconstitutional and therefore void.

With questions purely political, the court can have nothing to do. To the private rights, the life, liberty and property of the citizen it must extend protection, and in doing so may declare an act of the national legislature invalid.

THE KANGAROO KONVENSHUN!

OR

GRAND RECONSTRUCKSHUN MENAGERIE.

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

THE TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY.

FRIDAY, Feb. 14, 1868.

The pow-wow commenced just as the minute hand of the capitol clock reached 10 A. M.

The North Carolinian of yesterday was read, approved and transmitted to "de archives of gravity."

A communication was read from Be-a-nigger-dear Gen. Miles, in reply to a resolution of thanks tendered him by the Konvenshun, [for the great victory over Stonewall Jackson at Harper's Ferry, and President Davis, in the casemates of Fortress Monroe,] for a general order from district headquarters enforcing the tax ordinance of the Konvenshun.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, presented a petition for divorce from Charles Overton. Referred.

McDonald, of Chatham, a resolution in favor of Guthrie, sheriff of Orange. Lies over.

Abbott, "Shaker," a resolution designating the First National Bank, of Raleigh, as the depository for the State fund. Referred.

Congleton, black-leg and horse-thief, of Carteret, the following resolution abolishing the State Senate: Whereas, a true republican government is based upon the idea of equal rights to all men, and special privileges to none: and whereas, that branch of the legislative department of North Carolina, known as the Senate, is intended for the special advantage and the protection of [the hogs of] a particular class of citizens [against the depredations of the said Congleton] thereof. Therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate be, and the same is hereby abolished.

The resolution was referred.

McDonald, ass, of Chatham, a resolution declaring null and void all contracts and debts made prior to the 1st of May, 1868. Referred.

Mr. Rose, a resolution cancelling all debts contracted prior to May 1st, 1865. Referred.

CALENDAR.

Mr. Welker, alias Aminidab Sleek, called up his resolution, prohibiting the distillation of grain into spirituous liquors, and moved that the resolution be so amended that it shall enter into effect immediately after passage.

The motion was carried.

Mr. McCubbins, white man, moved to strike out "June" in 3rd line and insert "January."

McDonald, of Chatham, moved to strike out the whole section, and said he was "against the whole bizniss," as it was opposed to the "sperits" of a free people. Folks had a right to "bile" their corn as they did their bacon. He, therefore, moved to postpone indefinitely.

The Rev. (!) Welker "prayed" that the house would refuse to postpone.

The Earl—no, the ass, of Chatham, was constrained to believe that a great and "sollum" crisis was evidently approaching, when Konvenshuns could talk with so much "non-she-longs" (nonchalance) about depriving the people of their "rites." [Here the tone of ye ass-inine waxed very funereal.]

Harris, nigger, of Wake, did not think the Konvenshun had a right to legislate on this matter, and gave his reasons therefor in extenso.

Mr. Abbott (that's the Gineral) would vote for a postponement.

The Tourgee hoped it would not be postponed. He held in his hand a letter from a gentleman, (either a mistake, Tourgee, as to his being a gentleman, or else he don't know you. Gentlemen don't write to scalliwags like yourself, if they know them,) very widely known, asking for immediate action.

Galloway, clay-bank, indulged the hope that it would be postponed. It was a side issue and he hoped the Konvenshun would put it a-side.

Mr. Ray, of Alamance, was in favor of doing something for the relief of the people, [it is said that Mr. Ray has already done something towards relieving one of his neighbors] and he would oppose postponement.

Pending further discussion of the subject, Manager Cowles announced the SPECIAL ORDER.

The report of the Committee on Preamble and Bill of Rights being the Special Order, the second section was read and

Mr. Heaton moved its adoption, which motion prevailed.

Mr. H. then asked that sections 3, 4, 5 and 6 be read together, after which he said:

In the first and second propositions is involved one of the most momentous and important questions ever submitted to the people. We have already settled one great question by incorporating into the first section of this act the fact that all men are created equal, and that they are endowed with certain inalienable rights; that among them are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Let us settle here the great question that the laws of Congress is the paramount law—[We beg your pardon, Col. Heaton, but the white men of the North think differently.]—the supreme law of the United States. The Constitution was not made for a day, [We thought the Radicals had discarded all such articles as constitutions.] or a month, or a year, or a generation, but for all coming ages. It had not been submitted to Conventions of the different States for adoption, but to all the people of the States. [If you don't quit talking of the Constitution, Col. H., we'll have you expelled from the Black In-publican party.] The illustrious statesmen of that day approved of it. [But the illustrious (?) statesman whom you worship, Col. Heaton, Mr. Thaddeus Stevens, does not, and how dare you, sir?] Let us repair to the wise sentiments contained in this celebrated instrument. [Are you going to turn Democrat, Colonel?] When the demon of rebellion [brilliant and original imagery] raised its head to destroy the government, it was that sentiment that caused the soldiers of the United States to cling together for the preservation of the country.

Mr. Heaton alluded to the manner in which the war was brought on, and quoted passages from the speech of Alexander H. Stephens opposing secession, when the Convention of Georgia had assembled to take action on the subject. He did not assail many of those who had been drawn into the ranks of the rebellion. False ideas of right had led them there. They had been patriotic, and had fought nobly. Many had been killed, and although the slaughter of men was great, he thanked his God that they did not succeed in overthrowing this great and glorious government. If our credit is destroyed, it will be by staining our honor and our integrity. Look at the grandeur of the State—a State of such unparalleled resources—mineral, agricultural, &c., before thinking of repudiation. Let us preserve our integrity, and abolish ideas of repudiation. [Col. Heaton's remarks were quite lengthy. We have not the space to give them entire.]

The Tourgee said the State government had been destroyed. When North Carolina left the ge-lorious Union, it died, and its functions were not simply suspended, but they were destroyed. Had the Copperheads North, and the monied men of London, who held the securities of the Southern States, known that treason would kill their value, there would have been no war. Wall street could have killed the rebellion in twenty minutes.

[The ninny who could make so silly a speech as the foregoing, ought to be kicked to death by a jack-ass, and—but there's no hope of the Tourgee's committing suicide.]

Northern Copperheads—ten times worse than Southern traitors—had received those bonds and now say cent for cent. He favored repudiation of the old bonds, and said that if we accepted the ante-bellum obligations of the State, it would kill immigration. He said that North Carolina was now a new State, and was, therefore, in no wise bound for the indebtedness of the old State; that if the debt of the State of N. C. is payable by anybody, it is payable by the United States. [We have given enough of the Tourgee's speech to show his position. His unreported remarks are not worthy of publication.]

Harris, nigger, of Wake, had listened, not with astonishment, but with amusement, to the emptiness of Mr. Tourgee's remarks. They had taken such a course that he hardly knew how to reply to him. That gentleman had contended that the State government was dead. He (Harris) was opposed to the repudiation of the State debts made prior to and since the war. He would admit that the relations of the government had been destroyed, but he could not admit, but contended that the State had not been out of the Union. He could not see that the honest people of the State wanted repudiation. Destroy the credit of the State, and instead of getting others to immigrate to this State, it would drive those who are here out of it Is there an honest man here who wants the credit of this State to be tarnished? It was folly to ask the negroes such a question; they regarded the honor and credit of their State as too sacred to wish repudiation of its honest liabilities. No committee had brought before this Convention a single bill that the gentleman from Guilford had not arisen to oppose, and he was not surprised at his opposition this morning. He wanted the report adopted as it was reported by the committee, and would say, in concluding, to the gentleman, that the people of North Carolina did not guide their political actions by dollars and cents. He hoped the report would be adopted that we might say to the world that, though we are poor, we are honest.

Mr. Abbott was in favor of the report in letter and in spirit. Was he a North Carolinian by birth, as he is by adoption, he would denounce such assertions as had been made by the gentleman from Guilford, in the Capitol of the State, as not the sentiments of the people.

He held that all contracts made by the State, even during the rebellion, were binding and valid unless annulled by the same authority that made the contracts. We are the heirs of the defunct government, and are therefore responsible for its indebtedness. Society stands bound by the acts of its agent. It was impossible for him to see the motive which prompted gentlemen to take this false step. As a matter of expediency, we have but one course to pursue, and that was the straightforward course.

He said that such assumptions (meaning the Tourgee's) were characteristic of a rascal. [Sensation among the niggers in the galleries.]

Mr. Rodman said he could not concur with the remarks of the gentleman from Guilford. Because North Carolina had become separated from the general government, it did not imply that she thereby lost her identity. Can any man shut out his past history? No more could a State do so. Rather than consent to repudiation he would rather take it on his shoulders and the shoulders of his children, and work by the sweat of his brow, to pay the debt. If we should accept the gentleman's proposition and repudiate the State debt, what would be the result? We would sacrifice all the honor and credit that our ancestors had worked so diligently to gain for us. He had not designed to say so much, but he felt it his duty to say something to vindicate the State.

Mr. French—not the big-footed fellow from Bladen, but French, of Washington City, via Chowan County, said: We stand here to-day to maintain the honor and integrity of North-Carolina as founded by our fathers, [a horse laugh from Ashley, of Buzzards Bay], and such being my position, I am bound to oppose the stand taken by the Tourgee.

Mr. Nicholson said that he felt sorry for the gentleman who had advanced the policy of repudiation. He saw that the gentleman's proposition was going down, and something should be done to keep him from going down also. The honor and integrity of the State had always been the polar star of his existence. He did not want to see the brightness of that star dimmed by any act of this Convention tending towards repudiation.

Mr. Pool spoke in opposition to the Tourgee, and said, that by no act of his should the honor, reputation and integrity of the State ever be tain ed.

Mr. May also opposed, and said that if the late war should be an excuse for the non-payment of our debts, all we would have to do in future when we got in debt, would be to kick up a little fuss and the debt would be settled. He merely made his remarks for amusement—didn't offer them as arguments; the Convention was borne down with long-winded arguments, and he offered his remarks as a stimulant.

McDonald, always of Chatham, arose to defend the Tourgee. Gentlemen had harped a great deal about honesty, but he (McD.) thought virtue had played out in this State in 1861.—[Mack didn't lose any in '61.] He was for doing all he could for his country, and that was true patriotism. [Patriotism, according to Dr. Johnson, is the last refuge of a scoundrel.] He was for the United States first, North Carolina next, and for Johnny McDonald against Chatham county and the balance of mankind.

Manager Cowles announced the following committees:

Committee to memorialize Congress to reduce the tax on tobacco—Petree, Read and McCubbins;

On nigger Harris' resolution (inspired by Holden) in regard to Capt. Plato Durham's right to a seat in the Konvenshun—Harris, nigger, of Wake, Gahagan and Pool.

Pending further performance, the Menagerie closed until 7½ o'clock this evening.

State Immigration Agency.

Below is the Report of the Committee on this subject:

ORDINANCE FOR ESTABLISHING AN IMMIGRATION AGENCY, REPORTED BY COMMITTEE ON IMMIGRATION.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, That within twenty days after the ratification of the Constitution, framed by this Convention, by the Congress of the United States, the Governor of the State shall appoint a suitable person to act as Land and Immigrant Commissioner, who shall serve for four years, have an office in the City of New York, and be paid in quarterly instalments, a salary not exceeding $2,500 per annum. It shall be the duty of this Commissioner, as far as practicable, to effect the sale of such lands as the residents of this State shall authorize him to sell: he is hereby authorized to establish within the Emigrant Depot at Castle Garden, New York, a Southern Railroad Agency, for the purpose of selling Railroad Tickets to such Immigrants as may desire to settle in the State of North Carolina; he shall also make arrangements with such lines of travel as may be necessary, at the lowest possible rates of passage, for Immigrants and whoever shall desire to come into this State to settle, or for the purpose of viewing such property as may be for sale, with the intention of purchasing the same.

SEC. 2. The State Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay the salary of the Commissioner appointed under this Ordinance, and also such necessary expenses as may be required to carry out the purpose of this Ordinance, upon the warrant of the Governor.

D. J. RICH, Chairman.
S. S. ASHLEY,
GEO. W. GAHAGAN,
J. W. HOOD,
Majority of Committee.

* * *

That our readers may understand the subject matter under debate yesterday, we reprint that portion of the Bill of Rights which evoked discussion:

SECTION. 1. That we hold it to be self-evident that all men are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty, the enjoyment of the fruits of their own labor, and the pursuit of happiness.

SEC. 2. That all political power is vested in and derived from the people; that all government of right originates from the people, is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the benefit of the whole.

SEC. 3. That the people of this State have the inherent, sole and exclusive right of regulating the internal government and police thereof, and of altering and abolishing their constitution and form of government, whenever it may be necessary to their safety and happiness; but every such right should be exercised in pursuance of law, and consistently with the constitution of the United States.

SEC. 4. That this State shall ever remain a member of the American Union; that the people thereof are part of the American nation; that there is no right on the part of this State to secede, and that all attempts, from whatever source or upon whatever pretext, to dissolve said Union, or to sever said nation, ought to be resisted with the whole power of the State.

SEC. 5. That every citizens of this State owes paramount allegiance to the Constitution and government of the United States, and that no ordinance or law of the State, in contravention or subversion thereof, can have any binding force.

SEC. 6. To maintain the honor and good faith of this State untarnished, the public debt regularly contracted before and since the rebellion shall be regarded as inviolable and never questioned; but the State shall never assume or pay and debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave.

OUR NOON DISPATCHES.

The Fire in Wilmington.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Feb. 14.

A number of persons were buried beneath the ruins of a falling wall at day-light this morning. One white and four negro firemen have been taken from the ruins in a mangled condition. It is thought that all will die. A large number of hands are at work on the ruins, seeking to recover other bodies. It is feared that ten or twelve are crushed.

The fire is confined to the buildings mentioned in last night's dispatches. The loss is about $125,000.

Cable Dispatches.

HAVANA, Feb. 14.

Cape Haytien advices of the 10th say: Cosas within twenty miles of Cape Haytien had captured 30 of Salnave's followers, including a general. Several shot. Salnave's fall is regarded as certain.

A British man of war has gone to the Bay of Samana to watch Federal proceedings there.

OUR MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.

The government is pushing claims against Confederate agents abroad. Seven millions dollars worth of property has been attached in France. The claims against Mr. McRae approximate $12,000,000. He also sold 26 ships to various parties, against whom proceedings are being instituted.

The Treasury Department suggests that 7-30 bonds due on the 15th of June and July, amounting to $200,000,000, be promptly forwarded, otherwise there will be delay in returning 5-20s, in which they are convertible.

The President has pardoned Commodore Farrar, who commanded the Pensacola Navy Yard, but resigned to join the Confederate Navy.

The whiskey tax from 1863 to 1867, averaged $27,000,000 per annum.

The Senate has confirmed Ethan Allen as Collector of Customs at Teche, La.; Albert G. Gridley as General Appraiser of Merchandise in the South, and E. J. Morgan as Surveyor of Customs at Selma, Ala.

Gen. Lorenzo Thomas is assigned to duy as Adjutant General of the army, relieving Gen. Townsend, who has been acting since 1862.

Mr. Covode has presented a communication, supported by affidavits, regarding whiskey frauds in New Orleans. It alleges that each distiller pays the whiskey ring $1000 a month, the revenue officers getting a portion of the money.

The indications are that Senator Thomas, of Md., will be rejected.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.

Senate—The President was asked whether he had created a new military Department here, and under what law he did so.

The bill regarding filling vacancies passed. It provides that offices vacant by sickness or otherwise may be filled by the President for ten days, provided that the salary of the appointee shall not be increased.

Senator Thomas' case resumed. Discussed until the Executive session. Adjourned.

House—General Grant was directed to furnish his correspondence with Hancock.

A resolution was offered taxing Federal bonds two per cent.

The bill extending patent for wooden screw-making machine lost.

The Speaker submitted a communication from the Secretary of War, covering orders issued by the District Commanders.

The resolution of the Virginia Convention praying for a reduction of the tobacco tax was referred to the Ways and Means Committee.

Virginia Convention.

RICHMOND, Feb. 14.

The Judiciary Committee reported in favor of exempting property of the value of $1,200 from seizure for debts contracted after the ratification of the Convention.

A resolution prohibiting ministers, bank officers and prosecuting Attorneys from being members of the legislature, was tabled. The oyster law was discussed for the balance of the day.

Gen. Schofield has issued an order ousting Tobocco Inspectors who cannot take the test oath on March 1st.

Commodore E. M. Boutwell, late of the United States Navy, has been appointed Commissioner of Revenue for the city.

The New Military Division.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.

An official proclamation to-day creates the new Military Division of the Atlantic, comprising the Departments of the Lakes, of the East and of Washington, and commanded by Lieut. General Sherman with headquarters at Washington.

Florida Convention.

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 14.

The excitement among the delegates has been intense for the last four hours. There are serious apprehensions of a collision between the Billings faction and the majority. The former held a negro meeting to-night and through the civil authorities, the military are protecting the capitol from the possibility of violent demonstrations.

The Convention had 28 members to-day. The Bill of Rights adopted, declaring equal rights of all men, incorporating provisions of the Vermont and Virginia Constitutions.

The Legislative, judicial and Executive articles adopted. All the judges are to be appointed—Supreme Court Judges for life or good behavior—Circuit Judges for eight years. Sheriffs and Clerks of Courts also appointive. Constables are to be elected by the people.

The State officers are to be appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate. They are the Secretary of State, Attorney General, Comptroller, Treasurer, Surveyor General, Superintendent of Education, Adjutant General and Commissioner of Emigration.

The Bill of Rights declares that the State shall ever remain a member of the Union. An ordinance passed repealing unequal taxation respecting school-tax on freedmen.

Bubler declared entitled to his seat. George Walker ineligible because he was a judge of the election. The Convention claims full power to determine qualifications of delegates. The minority absent themselves from its sessions. They have no hope that Gen. Meade will accept their constitution.

Arrest of Comptroller Burns, of Ga.

AUGUSTA, GA., Feb. 14.

A dispatch to the Macon Telegraph, dated Rome, Feb. [illegible], says: Ex-Comptroller Burns was arrested to-day by order of Gen. Meade. He is now confined in the barracks, for refusing to deliver the records of his office.

Division of Missouri.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.

PROSPECTUS.

THE

NORTH CAROLINIAN,

A DAILY,

Democratic Newspaper,

PUBLISHED AT

RALEIGH, N. C.

W. A. HEARNE, JOHN W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

The NORTH CAROLINIAN is Democratic in its principles. It is unalterably opposed to Negro Suffrage, Military rule, and Reconstruction upon the basis of Congressional enactment.

Its Editors believe and teach that this is a

WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT,

FRAMED BY THE BRAINS, AND

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and yield a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN,

Will contain the freshest News, by telegraph and otherwise. Full reports of all Legislative Assemblies will be furnished its readers.

Particular attention will be paid to State news, and each number will contain a complete epitome of every incident reported in the State press.

MARKETS will be carefully reported.

The Weekly North Carolinian

Is the largest and handsomest paper in the State and will be filled with choice family reading and selected literary matter.

PRICE OF SUBSCRIPTION:

DAILY, one year, - - - - -	$8.00
" six months, - - - - -	4.00
WEEKLY, one year, - - - -	3.00
" six months, - - - -	2.00

Terms—Cash in advance.

We respectfully request our friends in all portions of the State to interest themselves in our behalf.

RATES OF ADVERTISING LIBERAL.

☞ As the North Carolinian retains the subscription list which it had as a semi-weekly at Wilson, it offers superior inducements to advertisers.

All Communications on business should be addressed to

THOS. J. LEE,
Business Manager.

The North Carolinian.

Raleigh, Saturday, February 15, 1868.

☞ The North Carolinian is published every morning in the building North-East corner of Fayetteville and Hargett Streets—up stairs.

☞ Entrance under the sign of NICHOLS, GORMAN & NEATHERY, Book and Job Printers.

REPRESENTATIVES FROM ABROAD.

In the burlesque Convention of North Carolina, are to be found representatives from every inhabited country on the face of the globe; all nations, tongues, kindreds, castes, colors, classes, and conditions are here generously essaying to perform the constitutional work of the people of North Carolina.

We have shown that one of the new-fledged officers, the Sergeant-at-Arms, is a non-resident of the State, and upon equally incontrovertible proof we have it that the Engrossing Clerk, O'Hara, is not even a citizen of the United States.

This is a pretty piece of business: conferring offices of profit and trust on non-residents of the State, and foreign adventurers and alien scapegraces!

What say the native "loil" and faithful fe-ew of the nigger wigwam?

HON. KENNETH RAYNER DANGEROUSLY ILL.

We learn by private telegram that the Hon. Kenneth Rayner, late of this City, is now lying dangerously ill at Memphis, Tennessee.

The many friends of this distinguished son of North Carolina, will learn with deep regret of the precarious condition of their illustrious fellow-citizen.

CITY AND STATE.

For the Benefit of the Poor.

It affords us much pleasure to announce to our readers that Mr. David Macrae, the distinguished Scotch author, now making the tour of the Southern States, has kindly consented to give public readings from his own works, in our City this evening.

The readings will be given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, for the exclusive benefit of the poor of Raleigh and vicinity.

The following is the programme of the entertainment:

I.

After-Dinner Oratory, (from "Dunvarlich.")

II.

Story of "George Harrington" and "Little Tiz" (from "George Harrington").

III.

"A Leap-Year Wooing."

It is hoped that the Senate Chamber will be obtained for the "Readings," and those of our readers who may attend, will doubtless enjoy a rare intellectual treat.

The object for which the entertainment is offered should, of itself, secure for the accomplished gentleman a large and appreciative audience.

Personal.

We had the pleasure of a visit, yesterday, from Mr. David Mcrae, a Scotch author of much repute, of whom we have heretofore spoken in connection with certain readings given by him for the benefit of the poor of Wilmington.

Mr. Mcrae visits Raleigh in search of information, which he intends incorporating in a history of the South, to be prepared upon his return to Scotland. He was the recipient of much attention in Wilmington, and gained there much information in regard to our social and political systems.

We bespeak, upon the recommendation of our Wilmington cotemporaries, the kind offices of the citizens of the "City of Oaks" in his behalf.

"Under the Gas Lights."

We witnessed the performance of the grand affair at the State house last night, and we pronounce it "beyant."

The dead carcass of the Rebellion was brought in, picked to pieces and devoured by the greedy members. In the melee incident to the collation, Tourgee asked Galloway why he indulged in so much foul abuse and blackguardism toward himself, and Galloway replied that he learned it from Mr. Tourgee. The latter collapsed like a wet dish-rag.

Nothing of importance was done, as it was impossible to keep the Manager awake.

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were before his honor, W. D. HAYWOOD, on yesterday:

Sidney Solomon, charged with assaulting Nelson Parker, colored, was sent on to the county court.

J. H. Keith, lodged in the guard-house for being intoxicated on the corner of Hargett and Wilmington streets, was fined $2.

William Cook, lodged in the guard-house for being intoxicated on Wilmington street, was fined $2.

Rufus Mangum, lodged in the guard-house for being intoxicated and disorderly at Ray's Hotel, on Morgan street, was fined $2.

Where were You—John Read?

The white men of Warren county want to know where John Read, Esq., was on Monday last, when the Konvenshun voted on Major Graham's amendment to the Militia Articles, that white folks and niggers should not be mixed up in the same companies, and that niggers should not be placed as officers over white men.

Speak out Johnny—show your hand—let us know whether you are a white man or a nigger.

The Point of Order.

The Chair slept profoundly last night.

A delegate raised a point of order at 9:20 precisely. At 9:50 the Chair was aroused by Galloway, who in his speech "swung round the circle," and overturned a pile of beaver hats: whereupon the Chair decided the point of order had been well taken.

Did you ever!

Complimentary.

The press of Wilmington speak in the most flattering terms of Mr. David Macrae's "Readings" in that city.

Presiding Dignity.

Applause, we have heard, does not belong to a grave and deliberative body, but the conduct of President Cowles, "under the gas lights," last night, showed quite to the reverse.

During the closing speech of Mr. Heaton, wherein that gentleman committed political sacrilege by calling on Henry, Madison and Clay, names dear to men, Mr. Cowles applauded with the vim of a backwoods "sovereign" at a political mass meeting.

The Wilmington Star recommends that the State Executive Committee appoint convassers for the State at large, in the approaching campaign. It asks if the Hons. W. A. Graham, Geo. Davis, Z. B. Vance, W. N. H. Smith and Thos. Bragg "are to remain quietly at their homes, when African Radicalism is sweeping like a tornado over this good old State?"

The suggestion is a good one. The gentlemen named and others like them; Howard, and Ransom, and Ashe, and Edwards, and Manly, and Turner, and Hoke, and Jenkins, and Person, and Shepherd, and Erwin, and Strong, and Dortch, and Conigland, all must come once again to the rescue of the old Mother.

The following are the officers of Tarboro Council, No. 23, of the Friends of Temperance, for the present term:

President, Lewis Chamberlain; Ex-President, D. Pender; Associate, D. F. Hart; Secretary, S. W. Chamberlain; Financial Scribe, J. B. Palamountain; Treasurer, Geo. T. Terrell; Conductor, T. W. Tolar; Asst. Conductor, C. E. Bennett; Outside Sentinel, J. W. White.

The Council is in a flourishing condition.

Sheriff Hart, of Edgecombe County, has, in compliance with an ordinance of the Congoes, reported the number of executions in his hands for collection. From the report we learn that the number of executions on both old and new debts is eighty-five, amounting to eighty-three thousand dollars.

The Superior Court Clerk holds in his office judgments to the amount of thirty thousand dollars, stayed by Gen. Canby's order.

Messrs. J. H. Hackett and Augustus M. Moore have associated with Mr. Brennan in the editorial conduct of the Edenton Transcript.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well. Yours truly,

J. B. DANIEL.

CHRONIC LIVER COMPLAINT CURED.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

THOMAS THORN.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $1°. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

WHITE MEN MUST RULE.

BY JAMES MAURICE THOMPSON.

The WHITES must rule the land or die;
The purpose stirs in hearts of steel;
With burning cheek and flashing eye,
We wait what waiting may reveal,
But come what may the WHITES must hold
What white men's patriot valor bought—
Our grandsires' ashes not yet cold
Hallow the soil for which they fought.

Shall low-born scum and quondam slaves
Give laws to those who own the soil?
No! by our grand-sires' bloody graves!
No! by our homesteads bought with toil!
Our rights are rooted in our lands,
Our law is written in the sky,
Fate flings the fiat from her hands—
The WHITES shall rule the land or die.

There is a stony energy
Locked in the honest white man's will—
There is a passion like the sea,
That clasps the shores of freedom still;
Though banded Cossack dare the day,
And soulless vampyres fill the nights,
The distant ominous thunders say—
None save themselves shall rule the whites.

Ring through the land the dirge of shame,
The requiem of greed and lust,
Drive back the Cossacks whence they came
And grind these vampyres in the dust:
Then shall the cry of hunger cease,
The horrid fiend of murder fly,
And all our valleys sleep in peace!
The WHITES must rule the land or die!

Hold fast, brave hearts, the day is nigh
When howling conclaves dare to meet—
When all these mongrel fiends shall fly
To some putrescence-daubed retreat!
Blow Fate's decree from sea to sea
From sky to sky, from realm to realm—
Our ship of State eternally
Shall have a WHITE MAN at the helm!

Negro Superiority at the North—the Result of Negro Equality at the South.

Give the negro political equality in the ten disfranchised States, or any one of them—involving the right to vote and to hold office—and there will, as a matter of course, be negroes in Congress, as Representatives and Senators.

The negro congressman will, of course, nominate for his own race, cadets to West Point and middies to Annapolis, and they must and will be appointed.

Before graduation these negro elves will associate with their white comrades on a footing of perfect equality—they will sleep, mess, study, march, and camp with them—some of the negroes must and will be made sergeants and corporals, and will be in command of white cadets.

After graduation, these negro cadets become brevet lieutenants in the regular army and navy, commanding white officers, soldiers and sailors, who must receive and submit to, from the negro, all the insolence, curses, blows, and tyranny which are too often exhibited by superiors. How frequently this would be shown by a negro officer to white subordinates. The white private must hold his negro officer's horse, stand sentry at his quarters, form his guard of honor, black his boots, brush his clothes, and run his errands.

In the process of time the negro brevet lieutenants are promoted by seniority—twelve months after he shall have graduated a new class graduates, and he ranks the cadets of the new class, white and black. In time the negro lieutenant will become captain, major, colonel, and general by the inevitable operation of the removal, resignation, or death of his seniors.

The young gentlemen of Massachusetts and New York—the youth of the Winthrops and Adams, of the Livingstons and Schuylers—the sons of the merchants, mechanics and farmers of the North, must touch their hats to, and must salute their negro commanding or superior officers, though he be as black as the ace of spades. They must receive and obey his orders, submit to reprimand; endure, in respectful silence, his insolence of word, look or manner; be ruled by the negro's will, and take from the negro what is often hard to bear from a white man, or they must be cashiered or shot, if in a burst of indignation they resent or resist.

The white soldier must share his camp and tent—must mess and march and associate with his negro comrade.

The negro becomes a fixed and constituent part of the regular army and navy of the United States—of the military staff of the country—with all the influence and power of evil or oppression which are incident to that position.

We can conceive of the odium, of the disgust of the service this will produce—how entirely it will drive out and keep out decent white men—how it will throw the whole army and navy into the hands of the negro, or his white parasite—how it will stop enlistment of white soldiers and sailors, and utterly demoralize the service in material, in insubordination and in tone.

With the position and power this will give the negro, can he be, will the negro colonel permit himself to be, denied social equality and admittance to your assemblies and firesides? Such denial will arouse his brutality, and intensify his disposition to abuse the privileges of his position.

Is not this one of the legitimate, inevitable, and logical results of granting political equality to the negro in any one or more States? Permit the one, can the other be prevented?

Follow out the same line in all the departments of the civil service—give the negro of the South political equality, and can you keep him out of Congress? If he gets into Congress, how can you deny or withhold from him any office, gift, right or perquisite incident to that position?

Such equality once accorded, in any degree, ensures his infusion into the political and social system of the entire country—a gangrenous and most hostile element. Shall these things be?

The New London "Star" relates this pleasant anecdote of John Beatty, father of General Beatty, just elected to Congress in Ohio, who was an Irishman, and once a soap and candle maker in that city:

"On one occasion a young fellow-countryman in his employment stole a box of his candles. He was much provoked and had him arrested, tried and convicted of the theft. On the trial he testified that the candles were worth four dollars—'every penny of it.' Thereupon the justice said that as the value of the property was more than three dollars and thirty-four cents, the punishment, in addition to the fine, must be whipping at the post. The poor boy began to cry. Beatty looked at him for a moment and the tears came into his eyes also. 'It was more than he had bargained for.' Springing up, he said to the court, 'Plase your Honor, that was my retail price, but as he took of me a whole box I can afford to call it three dollars and a quarter.' The young Irishman was not whipped.

An English paper remarks that in the event of a European war, England would have in its army the oldest field marshal in the world—Sir John Burgoyne. He is nearly ninety years old. Yet the readers of Mr. Motley's history will remember how the old Spanish veteran Mandragon, at the age of ninety-two, out-manœuvred and outfought the vigorous and capable young Prince Maurice.

Charles G. Leland is the man who said that "a New Englander's idea of hell was a place where every body has to mind his own business," which is a crisp as Macaulay's saying that the Puritans hated bear bating, not because it gave pain to the bear, but because it gave pleasure to the spectators.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

PROSPECTUS OF THE WESTERN VINDICATOR.

On or before the 1st of March, prox., the undersigned will commence the publication of a weekly newspaper bearing the above title, in the town of Rutherfordton, N. C.

The Western Vindicator, as its name signifies, will be devoted to the support of Western interests and the dissemination of useful intelligence, selected with especial reference to the wants of the section it will labor to represent.

Politically, it will, for the present, adhere to no party organization; but will give a cheerful support to all measures looking to the speedy restoration of the Union, the preservation of the Constitution intact, the supremacy of the white race, and the perpetuity of Republican liberty in America.

The "Vindicator" will have a larger circulation in Rutherford, Polk and Cleaveland counties than any other newspaper. Advertising rates low.

Terms—$2 per annum.
